Lithium Americas Announces Results of 2019 Annual General Meeting

Vancouver, Canada: Lithium Americas Corp. (TSX: LAC) (NYSE: LAC) (“Lithium Americas” or the “Company”) is pleased to announce the results of its annual general meeting of shareholders (the “AGM”) that was held on June 26, 2019.

All of the following business items were approved at the AGM by the requisite majority of shareholder votes cast at the meeting:

- setting the size of the Board of Directors at nine;
- electing each management-nominated director;
- re-appointing PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP as Lithium Americas’ auditor;
- approval of the unallocated entitlements under the Company’s equity incentive plan, as more particularly described in the information circular for the AGM;
- approval of the issuance of certain equity incentive grants, as more particularly described in the information circular for the AGM; and
- approval, in accordance with Multilateral Instrument 61-101 – Protection of Minority Security Holders in Special Transactions, of the “Project Investment” as such term is defined in, and as more particularly described in, the information circular for the AGM.
